Protection
warm darkness
and the sun never saw.
Torn from your life source,
perhaps you are closer to the Sun,
than we suspect.*

For mothers and fathers on
The death of their children

Dear parents,

This information sheet could help you deal with the situation after the death of your child. Your child was too small or too ill to live, or you could not opt for the child.

You are dealing with many questions, thoughts and painful feelings. This includes the question pertaining to the funeral of your child.

Even if you want to push away the thought about the funeral – since it is so difficult: give yourself time to feel what significance the funeral and the grave could have for you. Sometimes the sentiments change within hours or days.

According to the new legal provisions, you are being informed about the burial obligations. You have the following options:

- You arrange the burial of your child at your own expense.
- If you voice no wish and the child weighs less than 500 g. Your child will be interred at the Waldfriedhof in the city of Amberg, free of charge.

The dead children are buried together in a small coffin.

These summary burials are independent of sectarian and religious affiliation.

To provide a place for your child not only in your heart, but also in this world, we warmly invite you, your relatives and friends to an ecumenical farewell celebration and interment of the children.
